

2021 VIRTUAL BRAIN TUMOUR RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

Saturday, Oct. 2, 2021

Research Presentations:

- ▶ "Radioisotope Embedded in GlioTrap for Glioblastoma Treatment"

Dr. Fortin- Universite de Sherbrooke

- ▶ "Mapping of Essential Amino Acid Metabolism for the Detection of Glioblastoma Multiforme Spread in Post-Surgical Patients"

Dr. Singnurkar- Sunnybrook Health Sciences Center

Undergraduate Student Competition:

- ▶ Create a team, investigate and present your case, and receive constructive feedback from a panel of judges. Winning teams will receive monetary prizes

Join researchers and students as they present their experiences to find a cause and cure for brain tumours

Take Part & Win!

Register to compete against other Undergraduate teams for monetary prizes in the 2021 Pam And Rolando Del Maestro Family Undergraduate Student Research Competition Awards

ATTENTION:

In response to the current COVID-19 situation and in order to protect our presenters and attendees, Brain Tumour Foundation of Canada will present online via ZOOM.

zoom

Presented by:

braintumour
foundation
OF CANADA

The event is from 11am to 1:15pm EST.

Register to attend online:

www.braintumour.ca/researchsymposium

www.BrainTumour.ca